

NEGROES WANTED IN WASHINGTON

Now Serving Terms in Jail in This City for Carrying Pistols

HAD BEEN FINED $100

Prisoners Alleged to Have Shot Policeman in Capital City and Engaged in Other Crimes.

On the night of October 30th Officer Morris, of the Alexandria police force, was exercising espionage upon two strange negroes who were acting suspiciously in West End, or Duke street extended at a time when several holdups had been reported. He came upon them unexpectedly at a time when he had reason to believe they were about to intercept a man. He took the negroes in charge and when searched at the station house a pistol was found upon one and a number of cartridges upon the other. They gave their names as George Taylor and William Green.
They were unable to give an account of themselves, and were fined $100 each. As they did not meet the assessments, they were sent to jail for ninety days.

Yesterday officers from Washington visited the jail and it is said identified the negroes as desperadoes wanted in that city to answer the charge of shooting a policeman and engaging in other crimes.

They will be held subject to action on the part of the authorities of the capital city.

Taylor and Green have recently given the keepers at the jail considerable trouble. It is alleged that they formulated a plot to make a jail delivery, and assaulted Bailiff Candler.

SPORTS

The Drednoughts are scheduled to meet the Army Medical School eleven from Washington tomorrow afternoon on the Ship yard field. Manager Mueller of the Drednoughts scheduled the game late yesterday.

There is some question as to where the heralded Virginia Athletic Club—Quentin Athletic Club game, booked for tomorrow, will be played. Some of the local outfit favor the Shipyard field, while the Washington eleven desires to play on the High School field.
A decision will be reached tonight.

A meeting of the Virginia Athletic Club will be held tonight at the Community Center after practice. Every member of the club is requested to attend the meeting.

The Drednoughts are dickering for a game with the Ta Ko La Team of Richmond for Dec. 7th, in Richmond, and there seems a likelihood of the game being played.

Representatives from the Virginia Athletic Club, the Drednought Athletic Club, the Westminster Club and the High School were interested in the Alexandria Basketball League project launched last night at the Community Center. Another meeting will be held early next week.

There was a little talk yesterday of the old Cardinal Athletic Club putting a quint on the floor this winter, and if these old timers do stage a come back, the younger blood of Alexandria will be forced to play real basketball to win the city title.

TAG DAY A SUCCESS

Thousands Buy Tags For Alexandria Hospital Benefit

Tag day for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital was a success.
Rain had but little effect on those engaged in the task of disposing of the tags for this worthy institution.

Early this morning, long before many left the "hay", a small sized army of women, boys and girls, started on their rounds armed with the tags bearing the legend: "Have A Heart—Help the Alexandria Hospital, Saturday, November 22, Tag Day."

Long before noon most of the persons seen on the streets were one of the tiny pieces of pastboard indicating that they had contributed their mite to make tag day a success.

Probably never before was the sale of tags for any other occasion so general as it was today. There were few persons who refused the canvassers, and if they did it was because they did not have the change.
The promoters of the movement of the tag day celebration are well pleased with the result of the sale of the tags which will add several hundred dollars to the Alexandria Hospital funds.

BAN ON DANCING

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 22.—Dancing by boys and girls in the Baptist Schools of Virginia, complete control of these schools by the Baptists, the 75 million campaign, reports covering the year's work in the state, the relation of the Virginia board for ministers, relief to the board of the Southern Baptist convention, a strong sermon on applying first century Christianity to modern conditions and an address by Dr. Mullins, of the seminary on the world war, as a means of advancing religious liberty were the outstanding features of the Baptist general association Wednesday.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my sister, Nettie V. Robey, who departed this life 8 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

My sister was sleeping for a week Moving her hands up to Heaven, Telling us where she was going.
When we moved her from one bed to another.

She opened her bright eyes and gave us a loving smile.

The Golden Gates were opened.
And a gentle voice said, come, Rest in peace with sister dear.

In Heaven, God's happy home.

She sleeps, so young and fair, She slumbers sweet and knows no care.

Her heart was pure, her life was young.

Yet not our will, but God's be done.

By her sister,
Mollie Pilkerton.

279-1p.

In sad but loving remembrance of my daughter, Nettie V. Robey, who departed this life 8 years ago today, November 22, 1911.

Eight years seems long, since you left us.

It is only eight today.

But we love you just as dearly As the day you passed away.

How sadly we have counted the hours.

That measures eight sorrowful years.

Since they laid beneath the mantle of flowers.

The daughter we loved so well.

Her busy hands are folded.

Her work on earth is done.

Her troubles all are ended.

Her heavenly crown is won.

If we could see behind the stars That which is hid from us.

We know we would see our daughter.

There tenderly watching us.

The midnight stars are gleaming.
Upon her silent grave.

The one we love so dearly.

And tried so hard to save.

The dear one now is sleeping.

No care is on her brow.

Oh, blame us not for weeping.

For we have no daughter now.

By the family.

COAL MINERS CUT THEIR DEMANDS

Abandon Proposal for 30-Hour Week and 60 Per Cent Raise

ASK 40 PCT. INCREASE

Secretary Wilson Goes Into Joint Conference With Miners and Operators in an effort to Hurry Agreement.

Bituminous coal miners yesterday abandoned their demands for a 30-hour week and a 60 per cent increase in wages. In a counter-proposal to the operators in conference here they would accept a 40 per cent. wage increase and a seven-hour day.

The proposal evoked a spirited debate in the wage scale committees and it was said a decision probably would not be made at least until tomorrow. The operators have not indicated any willingness to amend their offer of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent. increase for day wage labor, with the working hours as at present.

Secretary of Labor Wilson went into joint conference with the miners and operators late yesterday to discuss the various proposals before them.

Bituminous coal mine operators served what was practically an ultimatum on the coal miners' representatives earlier in the day, telling them that the offer Thursday of 15 cents a ton and 20 per cent. day wage increases was the utmost that could be given. The miners went into a conference immediately to consider the offer.

Before entering a joint conference yesterday, Lewis reiterated that the operators' offer was inadequate and unacceptable. He indicated, however, that it would be given further consideration by the miners if it could be enlarged to cover details of working conditions and allowances for dead work for the miners. The operators, however, left the proposal in its original form.

As any contract agreed to by the operators and miners must receive the approval of Fuel Administrator Garfield, some observers believed he would step in before the negotiations between the miners and operators reached an impasse.

Reports indicate that the scarcity of coal is becoming increasingly acute.
While the enforcement of the priority order of the Fuel Administration was placed in the hands of regional coal committees, composed of railway directors and representatives of Dr. Garfield, word had been sent out from Washington to clamp on restrictions as tightly as local conditions would permit.

BAKING CONTEST

General Baking Co. to Award $1,000
In Prizes

Announcement has just been made of the personnel of the committee which will judge the home made bread submitted in the baking contest, to be held under the auspices of the General Baking Company next Saturday, November 29th.

One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) in cash prizes has been offered by the General Baking Company for the best 121 loaves of bread submitted on that day.

"What kind of bread do the people of Alexandria and vicinity really prefer?" Is the question to be settled by this competition in which thousands of housewives are expected to enter.

Following the contest, the General Baking Company will produce a new loaf of bread, in which their experts expect to combine the best qualities of the home baked loaves which win the prizes in this contest.

The Committee of Judges will meet for luncheon at the Hotel Washington, Washington, D. C. at 12.30 o'clock on Saturday, and from there will go to the Y. W. C. A. where the loaves will be judged.

See advertisement for list of judges on page three.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR CONFERENCE

Rev. Dr. Berryman Green Will Preside at Conference and Supper

STOCK TOASTMASTER

To be Given Wednesday Evening in Westminster Building in Interest of National Drive of Episcopal Church.

Rev. Dr. Berryman Green is to be presiding officer of the Life Work Conference and supper, which is to be given in the Westminster Building on the 26th under the auspices of the Nation Wide Campaign Committee of the Episcopal Church. Dr. Green, former rector of Christ Church of this city, is Dean of the Theological Seminary of Virginia and professor of the English Bible, and is well and favorably known to all. He is a leader in the church, having been selected by the diocese as one of its four clerical delegates to the recent General Convention.

Mr. Edward L. Stock, who has been selected as toastmaster, is a leader in the neighboring diocese of Washington, being vestryman and treasurer of St. John's Church, Bethesda, Maryland; took a leading part in the Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives; is a member of the Nation Wide Committee, speaking in various church throughout the diocese; was selected as a representative of the Episcopal Church of the Executive Committee is an active and prominent business man, being vice president and sales manager of Hart and Crouse Company, a large concern interested in boilers and heating apparatus. He brings to his church the ability, snap and enthusiasm of a wide-awake business man, and the conference is fortunate in being able to secure him, as he is much in demand for conferences of this nature.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 27, 1919.—A Proclamation by the Gov. of Va.

Whereas, In the dawn of this new era born of the victory of democracy, right and justice over autocracy and crime there has come during the past year the promise of a peace preparant with prosperity and happiness for the peoples of the world—a promise of human hopes fulfilled;

And whereas, Virginia's gallant sons who so conspicuously served the State and nation overseas, and survived the conflict, have returned to us during the year—heroes one and all, resuming the duties and responsibilities of civil life with the same fortitude and spirit that carried them to victory on the field of battle; and Whereas, In this period of social and economic unrest the Commonwealth during the year has been spared the distress and injury of internal disorder, and has enjoyed great prosperity; now

Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do proclaim, Thursday, November 27, 1919, a public holiday to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer throughout the Commonwealth, and I call upon all the people of Virginia to gather on that day in their usual places for divine worship and there, as well as in the sacred confines of the homes, give thanks to the Almighty for the cessation of hostilities and the promise of an enduring peace in the world; for the many blessings we have received at the hands of the Almighty and for the return of our sons from overseas—at the hour of prayer on this day of joyful thanksgiving, however, let our thoughts turn in grateful memory to our immortal dead who sleep on the battle fields of France.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth this twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the one hundred and forty-fourth year of the Commonwealth.

Westmoreland Davis,
Governor.
